Has Been Postponed.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the A. O. U. W., which was to have been held on May 12, has been postponed to a date which will be announced later on account of the present street car strike.

On Monday evening an exceptionally fine union meeting and entertainment was given by the lodge in Kansas City at Music Hall. The program consisted of music and recitation, an address by Grand Master Workman Miller and Walter P. McArthur of the Grand Lodge Finance Committee. The entertainment closed with a competitive drill between the Kansas City (Kans.) lodge and the team of South Park Lodge, Denver. Grand Master Workman Miller was then reported a new lodge at Mineral Point, which he will institute in a few days with a charter of twenty-five members.

Capital City Lodge at Jefferson City will institute fourteen new members Monday night. This lodge is very active and energetic. The grand master workman will be present.
